

Dr. James Monaco Elementary School
9350 Cape Cod Blvd., Aubrey, Texas 76227
940-668-0000

June 25, 2014

To Whom It May Concern:

I would like to recommend Tammy Cardwell for your consideration. She has been an outstanding leader on our campus and possesses numerous positive qualities that would qualify her to be a very successful leader in our educational field.

Tammy is currently a self-contained fifth grade English Language Arts teacher at Dr. James Monaco Elementary School in Aubrey, Texas. She maintains high expectations for herself and her students. Her students have consistently performed extremely well on state wide assessments year after year.

Mrs. Cardwell excels in all that she does and holds many leadership roles within our district. She is engaging and holds the interest of her students. She establishes clear objectives for each lesson and works to meet those specific objectives. She has effective discipline skills, efficient classroom management skills, communicates well with students and parents, and has an extremely positive rapport with her students. Tammy has a firm knowledge of curriculum and standards and is very knowledgeable of the subject matter.

Tammy is a compassionate teacher that has a huge heart for her students. She is a genuine, dependable, trustworthy, passionate person. She is a very conscientious, dedicated employee that is accommodating to all those whom she is in contact with. She skillfully and faithfully completes all tasks set before her. Her classroom is well managed, organized, print-rich, and filled with excellent instruction.

Mrs. Cardwell is devoted to educating young minds and will excel in any endeavor she attempts. I am confident that she will flourish in your program.

Sincerely,
Jana Lowman
Principal, Dr. James A. Monaco Elementary School